NOTICE.

DEFINITION OF MINING DIVISIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given that under the provisions of the "Mineral Act, 1891," and the "Placer Mining Act, 1891," the under-mentioned Districts have, for the purposes of the said Acts, been divided by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council into the following named and described Divisions:—

CARIBOO DISTRICT.

Mining Divisions.

QUESNELLE FORKS MINING DIVISION.—Commencing at the south-eastern corner of the Cariboo Electoral District; thence north along the eastern boundary of the said district to a point about six miles south of the 53rd parallel of north latitude; thence in a direct line to the western boundary of the said district; thence following the western and southern boundaries of the Cariboo District to the point of commencement.

RICHFIELD MINING DIVISION.—Commencing at a point on the 52nd parallel of north latitude (being also the southern boundary of the Cariboo District), situated about two miles east of the Fraser River; thence following the western and northern boundaries of the Quesnelle Forks Mining Recording Division to a point about six miles south of the 53rd parallel of north latitude; thence following the eastern boundary of the said district to a point about 34 miles south of the 55th parallel of north latitude; thence in a direct line to a point on the 124th west meridian, being also the western boundary of the said district; thence following the western and southern boundaries of the said district to the initial point.

OMINECA MINING DIVISION.—Commencing at a point on the eastern boundary of the Cariboo District, being the north-eastern corner of the Richfield Mining Recording Division; thence in a northerly direction to the 60th parallel of north latitude, being the northern boundary of the Province; thence west along the said parallel to the north-western corner of the said district; thence south along the western boundary of the said district to the north-west corner of the Richfield Mining Recording Division; thence east to the point of commencement.

CASSIAR DISTRICT.

Mining Divisions.

STICKEEN MINING DIVISION.—To include all that portion of the district lying to the west of the watershed between the Pacific and Arctic Oceans and north of the 56th parallel of north latitude.

LAKETON MINING DIVISION.—To include all that part of the district lying between the above-mentioned watershed and that of Cottonwood River and a line drawn from the source of the said Cottonwood River to the 60th parallel of north latitude, and from the mouth of the said Cottonwood River in a south-easterly direction to the Forks of Turn-again or Black River; thence to the dividing line between Cassiar and Cariboo District.

McDAME CREEK MINING DIVISION.—To include all that part of the district lying between the north-east boundary of the Laketon Division and a line running about south-east from the 60th parallel of north latitude across the north-east corner of the district to the junction of the Dease with the Liard River; thence in a south-easterly direction to the mouth of Turn-again or Black River; thence following the south bank of the Liard to the dividing line between Cassiar and Cariboo Districts.

LIARD RIVER MINING DIVISION.—To include all that portion of the district lying to the north-east of the McDame Creek Division comprising the whole of the main Liard River that lies within the boundaries of the Cassiar District, and such portion of Hyland and other streams that lies within the said lines.

KAMLOOPS DIVISION OF YALE DISTRICT.

Mining Divisions.

YALE MINING DIVISION.—Embracing all that portion of Yale District bounded on the north by a line drawn from the watershed situated east of the Thompson River, at Spence's Bridge, to Foster's Bar, on the Fraser River; thence to the western boundary of Yale District; south, by the International Boundary; east, by the watershed east of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers, terminating at Spence's Bridge.

KAMLOOPS MINING DIVISION.—Commencing at a point on 120th meridian where it joins the 50th parallel; thence west to the boundary of Yale Mining Division; thence north and west along the boundary of Yale Division to a point on the eastern boundary of Lillooet District; thence north and east along south boundary of Lillooet District to west boundary of Kootenay District; thence south along boundary of Kootenay District to south boundary of railway belt; thence along boundary of railway belt to 120th meridian; thence south along 120th meridian to point of commencement.

SIMILKAMEEN MINING DIVISION.—Embracing that portion of Yale District bounded on the north by the 50th parallel; south, by the International Boundary; east, by the 120th meridian; west, by the eastern boundary of Yale Division.

EAST KOOTENAY DISTRICT.

Mining Divisions.

DONALD MINING DIVISION.—To include all the country drained by the rivers, streams and tributaries thereof, flowing into the Columbia River and Kimbasket Lake, between Boat Encampment and Moberly, together with all the country on Canoe River and such tributaries thereof as are within the limits of the East Kootenay District.

GOLDEN MINING DIVISION.—To include all the country drained by the rivers, streams and tributaries flowing into the Columbia River between Moberly and the mouth of Shuswap Creek (also known as Number Two Creek), including said creek and its tributaries.

WINDERMERE MINING DIVISION.—To include all the country drained by the rivers, streams and tributaries flowing into the Columbia River, Lake Windermere, Columbia Lake and Lake Adela, to the south of the mouth of Shuswap or Number Two Creek, exclusive of said creek and its tributaries; also all the country drained by the Upper Kootenay River and its tributaries as far south as the mouth of Findlay Creek, including Findlay Creek and its tributaries.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION

THE VERNON JOCKEY CLUB, LIMITED LIABILITY.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, hereby certify that it is our desire to form, under the provisions of the "Companies' Act, 1890," and the amending Acts thereto, a Company for the objects and purposes hereinafter more particularly set out.

The name of the Company shall be "The Vernon Jockey Club, Limited Liability."

The said Company shall have the following for its objects:—

1. To promote and encourage, by such means as the said Company may deem expedient, the breeding of thorough-bred running, pacing and trotting horses, and generally the improvement of the breed, stock and development of horses, and for the purpose of profit to the said Company:

2. To encourage, by legitimate means, trials of speed between horses, and racing of horses generally as a test for the objects sought to be attained by the said Company as mentioned above:

3. In order to carry out the more successfully fair and honourable trials of speed between horses, the prevention, detection and suppression of all improper and fraudulent schemes and devices in connection therewith, and the punishment of all offenders by such means as to the said Company may appear just:

4. To purchase, lease, hire or otherwise obtain such real and personal property as the Company may require for their said purposes, and to acquire any rights, privileges or easements as to the said Company may appear necessary, convenient, expedient or conducive to the Company's objects, interest and advantage:

5. To sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the real estate of the said Company, and to improve, manage and develop the same, and to turn to advantage or otherwise deal with any and all property, real and personal, together with the rights, privileges and easements of the Company:

6. To do all and every act, matter, thing or deed for the more effectually attaining the objects sought by the said Company, and that will pertain and be conducive to their best interests.

7. The amount of the capital stock of the said Company shall be $5,000, divided into 500 shares of $10 each.

8. The time of the existence of the said Company shall be 25 years.

9. The number of trustees who shall manage the concerns of the Company shall be three, and their names are Frederick Hibbert Barnes, William Fraser Cameron and William Joseph Armstrong.

10. The principal place of business of the Company is at the County of Yale, in the District of Yale.

11. A stockholder shall not be individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the Corporation, but the liability of a stockholder shall be limited to his proportion (based on the amount of his respective shares) to assessments legally levied, and the charges thereon if advertised as delinquent during the time that he is a stockholder, upon a share or shares of which he is the holder, as shown by the shareholders' register book of the Corporation; assessments and charges thereon, when taken collectively, shall not exceed in the aggregate the value in dollars printed or shown on each share when issued.

In testimony whereof we have hereto set our hands at the City of Vernon, B.C., this 6th day of November, A.D. 1893.

Made, signed and acknowledged, in duplicate, by the above-named Frederick Hibbert Barnes, William Fraser Cameron and William Joseph Armstrong before me.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION UNDER THE "COMPANIES' ACT, 1890," AND AMENDING ACTS.

"THE FISHERMAN'S CANNING COMPANY, (LIMITED LIABILITY.)

WE, the undersigned, William L. Fagan, of the City of Vancouver, James Shaw, of the said City of Vancouver, and Stephen Hinchliffe, of Port Guichon, all of the District of New Westminster and Province of British Columbia, desire to form a company under the Companies' Act of 1890, and amending Acts.

1. The name of the company shall be "The Fisherman's Canning Company, Limited Liability."

2. The principal place of business of the Company shall be at Port Guichon, in the District of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia.

3. The capital stock of the Company shall be $40,000 (forty thousand dollars) divided into four hundred shares of $100 (one hundred dollars) each.

4. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

5. Three Trustees shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months, and their names are: William L. Fagan, James Shaw and Stephen Hinchliffe aforesaid.

6. The objects for which the Company is formed are:

(a.) To carry on the business of Fish Packers and Canners, and for that purpose to buy, catch, net, or otherwise acquire salmon or other fish, meat and fruit of all kinds, and to can, preserve and prepare the same for market, and to export and deal therein, and generally to carry on the business of fish, meat and fruit canning in all their branches.

(b.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business and property of any business or company carrying on any business now existing or which may hereafter be established in British Columbia which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessing property suitable for the purpose of the Company.

(c.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire lands, rights in lands, and foreshore rights, to buy, lease, build, improve, and own buildings, wharves, boats, nets, fishing tackle, and everything incidental to such business, or that in any way may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to render profitable or enhance the Company's properties or rights therein for the time being.

(d.) To carry on the business of oil manufacturers, and especially to manufacture, buy, sell, refine, manipulate and deal in all kinds of fish oils, and to do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of its objects.

(e.) To carry on a general business of wholesale and retail, and for that purpose to buy, sell, import, export and deal in all kinds of goods, wares and merchandise.

(f.) To establish any hotels or other conveniences in connection with the Company's property, and to carry on the business of hotel-keepers, tavern keepers, licensed victuallers, and refreshment purveyors.

(g.) To charter, acquire, build, own, run, equip, appoint and operate steamships, tugs and other vessels of any and every description, or shares therein, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same.

(h.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river and lake in British Columbia for the use of their business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same.

(i.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares, or stock, or securities in any company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold and use, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities.

(j.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, and in particular any land, buildings, fishery stations, easements, licenses, patents, machinery, and to purchase rolling stock, plant and stock in trade.

(k.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company.

(l.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(m.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of their property, rights and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company.

(n.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

(o.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect and for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution.

(p.) To remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place any shares in the Company's capital stock, or in debentures, or debentures of stock or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or premises of the Company, or the conduct of its business.

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members thereof, in specie or otherwise.

(r.) Generally to make, do and execute all such acts and deeds, covenants, matters and things as the Company may deem expedient, necessary, incidental, or otherwise conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objects, or to the conversion or disposal of any security or property held or acquired by the Company.

In testimony whereof the parties hereto do make, sign and acknowledge this Memorandum of Association (in duplicate), at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, this 14th day of October, A.D. 1893.

Made, signed and acknowledged by the said
 William L. Fagan,

THE HALL MINES, LIMITED (FOREIGN.)

REGISTERED THE 31ST DAY OF OCTOBER, 1893.

Certificate of Registration.

THIS is to certify that I have this day registered "The Hall Mines, Limited (Foreign), under the "Companies' Act," Part IV., Registration of Foreign Companies and the "Companies' Act Amendment Act, 1889."

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire gold, silver, copper, or other mines, rights and metalliferous land in British Columbia or elsewhere, and any interest therein, and in particular to acquire the mines known as the "Silver King," "Kootenai," "Bonanza," "American Flag," and "Kohinoor," situated on Toad Mountain, West Kootenay, District of British Columbia.

(b.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, improve, manage, work, develop, sell, and otherwise deal with mines, mining rights, metalliferous and other lands, milling, smelting, chemical and other works in British Columbia or elsewhere, and generally to carry on the business of a mining, milling and smelting company in all its branches.

(c.) To explore, open and work claims or mines, and raise and quarry for gold, silver, copper and other minerals, and ores and other substances, and to carry on the business of a company trading in all such materials in all its branches.

(d.) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions, stores, explosives, dry and wet goods, and things capable of being used in connection with mining and metallurgical operation, or required by workmen or others employed by the Company.

(e.) To construct, erect, equip, maintain, improve, manage, and work (or aid in and subscribe towards so doing), roads, tramways, railways, piers, quays, wharves, viaducts, aqueducts, water-works, canals, flumes, ditches, crushing and other mills, reservoirs, water-courses, buildings, factories, warehouses, ships, and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to the objects of the Company, and to contribute to or otherwise aid or take part in such operations.

(f.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, or any corporations, companies or persons for any charters, contracts, decrees, concessions, rights, privileges or benefits that may be deemed advantageous, and to carry out, exercise and comply with the same, or sell, lease or dispose of, or grant sub-licenses or sub-concessions or otherwise turn the same to account.

(g.) To acquire by purchase, grant, concession, lease, license or otherwise, any lands or hereditaments, or rights or interests in lands or hereditaments, convenient for any of the purposes of the Company, and any mines, minerals, or mining rights in any part of the world, and sell and dispose of or otherwise turn to profit in any way the same.

(h.) To search for, seek, explore, mine open and work mines, quarries, collieries, oil wells, minerals and other deposits, and to render marketable, and sell and dispose of, or otherwise turn to profit in any way the same.

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and protect, prolong and renew, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, any patents, patent rights, brevets d' invention, licenses, protections, secret processes or privileges, and to use, manufacture, and to grant licenses or rights in respect of, or turn to account the same, or sell and dispose thereof, as may seem advantageous to the Company.

(j.) To use, cultivate, improve, develop and stock, and to work and build on, and generally to turn to account the Company's lands in such manner as the Company think fit, and to sell or otherwise dispose of all such stock and products of the said lands.

(k.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any business, undertaking, trading concern or property, whether with a view to re-selling the same either to a company or to any private person or otherwise, and to carry on, enlarge and develop and improve the same, and to turn the same to account in any manner which may appear advantageous to the Company, and to sell and dispose thereof.

(l.) To purchase, rent, lease, hire, charter, occupy or otherwise acquire any lands, works, buildings, premises, houses, laboratories, workshops, tenements, hereditaments, plant, machinery, engines, apparatus, appliances, easements, rights of way, rights of privileges, real or personal, and to erect, construct, build, make, alter, improve, superintend, manage, work, control, or maintain any lands, works, buildings, premises, houses, laboratories, workshops, tenements, plant, machinery, engines, apparatus, appliances, easements, rights of way, rights or privileges, real or personal, that may seem advantageous to the Company.

(m.) To sell, lease, let, exchange, dispose of, mortgage, or to grant any license for the use or practice of, or for the working of any property or rights of the Company whatever, for cash or stock, shares or bonds of any other Company or association, and either payable at once or by deferred payments, or by sharing of profits, royalty, or in any other manner, and to do all such acts and things that may be deemed expedient for turning to account in any way any property or rights in which the Company is or might be interested.

(n.) To execute and carry into effect any agreement or agreements to fulfil any or all of the objects of this memorandum.

(o.) To prosecute and execute, directly or by contributions or other assistance, any such or any other works, undertakings, projects, or enterprises in which or for the prosecution whereof, or on the security whereof, or of any profits or emoluments derivable therefrom, the Company shall have invested money, embarked capital or engaged credit.

(p.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation of the Company, and the obtaining the subscription of the share and debenture capital thereof, including all commissions and other remuneration to brokers or other persons, for procuring or guaranteeing subscriptions for, or for underwriting, placing, selling or otherwise disposing of any of the shares, debentures or other securities or property of this Company, or of any company in which this Company is or may be interested, or assisting so to do, or for procuring or obtaining settlement and quotation upon London, or Provincial, or Foreign or Colonial stock exchanges, of any of the said share or debenture capital, and to enter into any contract or contracts for any of the purposes hereof.

(q.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on or possessed, or to be possessed, of property suitable for the purposes of the Company. To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, joint adventure, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any other business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to take, deal in, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock, or other securities of, and subsidise, underwrite the capital of, or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities.

(r.) To borrow and raise money on such terms as the Company may determine, and to secure the re-payment of any money borrowed or raised, together with any interest, bonus, or premium payable or agreed to be paid in respect thereof, by or without a mortgage or charge upon the whole or any part of the assets (existing and future) of the Company (including its uncalled capital), and that either with or without the intervention of trustees, and so that such mortgage or charge may be contained in any trust deed or deeds, or in any debenture or debentures (to bearer or registered holder), and such debentures may be terminable or perpetual or redeemable by drawings or otherwise, or irredeemable, and with or without preference or priority among different issues, and with power for the Company to vest in the hands of trustees for any persons, company or corporation advancing any moneys to the Company, any part of the moneys so advanced, or of the capital or undivided profits of the Company, with a view to securing to the lenders so advancing moneys the due performance of all the obligations of the Company in regard thereto, and with or without power to the lenders to convert their securities into shares of the Company.

(s.) To make, draw, issue, accept, endorse, discount and re-discount, purchase, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments.

(t.) To sell the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, to form and promote any other company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties, rights and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company.

(u.) To accumulate profits for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets, whether capital or profits, for specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally, and to admit any class or section of those who have dealings with the Company to any share in the profits thereof, or in the profits of any particular branch of the Company's business, or to any other special rights, privileges, advantages or benefits.

(v.) To invest or deal with any moneys of the Company, not immediately required, in such manner as the Company may think fit.

(w.) To aid in the establishment of, and support of, associations or institutions calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company, or having dealings with the Company, and to confer on any such persons the right to participate in the profits of the Company.

(x.) To subscribe to any fund, institution or company, and to act, by delegate or otherwise, upon any trade, council, committee, chamber of commerce, syndicate, or any other body of persons formed to lawfully promote either the general interest of businesses to which that of the Company is allied, or any other business that may be conducive to the interests of the Company.

(y.) To cancel or accept surrenders of any share or shares of any member or members for any reasons and on any terms and conditions, and as and when the Directors, in their absolute discretion, think fit, with or without any continuing liability attaching to such member or members to pay up any uncalled or unpaid capital in respect of such share or shares so cancelled or surrendered.

(z.) To purchase or otherwise acquire or redeem the preference shares of the Company, as provided by the Articles of Association, subject to the sanction of the proper Court.

(aa.) To obtain any provisional order of the Board of Trade or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect.

(bb.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign or colonial country or place.

(cc.) To distribute, by way of dividend or otherwise, among the members of the Company any shares or securities belonging to the Company or any other company, or any property or assets of the Company applicable as profits, and to issue shares, bonds or other securities of the Company, in satisfaction or on account of any liabilities, dividends, bonus, or share of profits so payable, whether to members or employees of the Company or other persons.

(dd.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases as may seem expedient.

(ee.) To remunerate any person or persons for services rendered, or to be rendered, in relation to the placing of the Company's shares or securities or otherwise.

(ff.) To issue debentures or other securities or shares (wholly or partly paid up) to any Director, officer of the Company, or other person, as the consideration for any property which may be acquired by, or any services or work which may be rendered to or done for, the Company, or in or towards payment of the debts or liabilities of or undertaken by the Company.

(gg.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

(hh.) To do all other such things as are conducive or incidental to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.

(ii.) Subject to section (z) the capital funds and assets of the Company shall not be expended or applied in the purchase of, or lent upon, the security of its own shares.

(jj.) The word "Company" throughout these presents shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

The amount of the capital stock of the said Company is three hundred thousand pounds sterling, divided into two hundred and fifty thousand ordinary shares of one pound each, and fifty thousand cumulative preference shares of one pound each.

The place of business of the said Company is located at the corner of Victoria and Kootenay Streets, in the Town of Nelson, British Columbia.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal of office the 31st day of October, 1893, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

C. J. LEGGATT,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

CANADA SETTLERS' LOAN AND TRUST COMPANY, LIMITED (FOREIGN).

REGISTERED THE 13TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1893.

Certificate of Registration.

THIS is to certify that I have this day registered the "Canada Settlers' Loan and Trust Company, Limited" (Foreign), under the "Companies' Act," Part IV., "Registration of Foreign Companies," and the "Companies' Act Amendment Act, 1889."

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of a loan and trust Company in all its branches:

(b.) To lend money for any term to any person, partnership, corporation or association:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, rights or privileges which the Company may think suitable or convenient for any purposes of its business, and to erect and construct buildings and works of all kinds:

(d.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association or company possessed of property suitable for any of the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(e.) To purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, and to hold the shares, stocks or obligations of any company in the United Kingdom, or elsewhere, and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute any such shares, stocks or obligations amongst the members of this Company in specie:

(f.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other obligations or negotiable instruments:

(g.) To sell, let, develop, dispose of, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, whether acquired in the course of its business as mortgagees, or otherwise, upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company.

(h.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incident to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares, and to apply at the cost of the Company to Parliament for any extension of the Company's powers:

(i.) To carry out all or any of the foregoing objects as principals or agents, or in partnership or conjunction with any other person, firm, association or company, and in any part of the world:

(j.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The amount of the capital stock of the said Company is five hundred thousand pounds sterling, divided into fifty thousand shares of ten pounds each.

The place of business of the said Company is located at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal of office the 13th day of November, 1893, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

THE COMPANIES' ACT, 1890, AND AMENDING ACTS.

Memorandum of Association of the Burrard Inlet Red Cedar Lumber Company, Limited Liability.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, desire to form a Company under the "Companies' Act, 1890," and amending Acts.

1. The corporate name of the Company shall be "The Burrard Inlet Red Cedar Lumber Company, Limited Liability."

2. The objects for which the Company is formed are:—

(a.) To acquire the interests of John Edward Crane and Hedley Chapman, respectively, in certain timber limits within the District of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia, under four several licenses from the Dominion Government, numbered respectively 123, 137, 210, and 211.

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or exchange, or otherwise acquire for investment, development, resale, or otherwise, any lands, timber lands or limits, or timber leases and licenses to cut timber, buildings, water or foreshore rights and privileges in the Province of British Columbia, and to traffic in such lands, buildings, and other property of any tenure and any interest therein.

(c.) To build and operate saw-mills and other mills and factories for the manufacturing of lumber and sale of lumber, shingles, boxes, blinds, sash, and furniture, and any other articles of which wood shall form a component part.

(d.) To carry on the business of saw-mill proprietors and merchants and dealers in timber and lumber of all kinds, and for these purposes to do and carry on all things, dealings and tradings which may be requisite or expedient or incidental thereto.

(e.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches or sidings, reservoirs, warehouses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, gas works, electric light and other works and conveniences which may seem to be calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute, to subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof.

(f.) To improve, clear, widen or deepen rivers, any rivers or streams for the purpose of floating timber and logs, or any other purpose conducive to the interests of the Company, and to divert, carry away, or otherwise use the waters in any such rivers or streams for manufacturing or other purposes, and for generating electricity as a motive or illuminating power.

(g.) To apply for such acts, grants, and concessions by or from the Dominion or Provincial Governments as the Company from time to time may deem it desirable to obtain for the interests of the Company, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise such grants and concessions.

(h.) To purchase the good will or any other interest in any trade, business, or invention of a nature or character similar to any trade or business which the Company may be authorized to carry on, or which may promote or benefit any such authorized trade or business.

(i.) To construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire engines, machinery, plant, steamers, ships, barges, lighters, boats, ferry boats, and other vessels, and to hire, freight, sell and let the same, and otherwise employ or dispose thereof for or in connection with any of the objects, undertakings, or businesses of the Company.

(j.) To make or carry into effect any arrangements with respect to the union of interests or amalgamation, either in whole or in part, or to enter into partnership with any other companies or company, and to acquire, hold, and dispose of any shares in any other company whose objects may be similar to or may assist any of the objects, undertakings, or businesses of the Company.

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(l.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company.

(m.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, timber limits, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock in trade.

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital.

(o.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments.

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company.

(q.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to attainment of the above objects.

3. The capital stock of the Company shall be $500,000.00 divided into 5,000 shares of $100.00 each.

4. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

5. The number of the Trustees of the Company shall be four, namely, John Edward Crane, Hedley Chapman, Howard Chapman, and Robert A. Cunningham, who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months.

6. The principal place of business of the Company shall be in New Westminster District, in the Province of British Columbia, and the head office of the Company will be in the City of Victoria, British Columbia.

In witness whereof, we, the undersigned, have made, signed, and acknowledged these presents, in duplicate, at the City of Victoria, on the eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Made, signed and acknowledged by J. E. Crane, Hedley Chapman, Howard Chapman, and R. A. Cunningham, in the presence of

ARTHUR H. HARMAN,
Notary Public, Victoria, B. C.

I hereby certify that J. E. Crane, Hedley Chapman, Howard Chapman, and R. A. Cunningham, personally known to me, appeared before me and acknowledged to me that they are the persons mentioned in the annexed instrument as the makers thereof, and whose names are subscribed thereto as parties, that they know the contents thereof, and that they executed the same voluntarily.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

OF THE—

"Siwash Creek Gold Mining Company, Limited Liability."

WE the undersigned persons are desirous of forming ourselves into a Company under the "Companies' Act, 1890."

1. The corporate name of the Company shall be the "Siwash Creek Gold Mining Company, Limited Liability."

2. The objects for which the Company is hereby formed are:—

(a.) To take over the benefits of three several mining leases dated respectively the 9th day of December, 1891, between George Christie Tunstall, Gold Commissioner, of the one part, and John P. Roddick of the other part, recorded the 11th December, 1891, 26th January, 1893, and made between G. C. Tunstall, Gold Commissioner, of the one part, and Charles T. Dunbar of the other part, recorded 22nd March, 1893, and the 25th day of January, 1893, and made between G. C. Tunstall, Gold Commissioner, of the one part, and J. C. Keith, recorded 22nd March, 1893; all now vested in William Farrell, E. Lindsay Phillips, and Charles T. Dunbar, subject to an agreement dated the 18th day of September, 1893, between the said William Farrell, E. Lindsay Phillips, and Charles T. Dunbar, and C. St. Aubyn Pearse and Mountstuart William Elphinstone.

(b.) To carry on the business of mining in all that pertains thereto, and to procure, by purchase or otherwise, mine and work ores, minerals, and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds.

(c.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, exchange or otherwise, and to hold mines or mineral claims, mineral lands and mining rights, coal lands, timber lands, timber leases and timber claims, mills and factories of every description, works, buildings, machinery, easements and privileges, patent and patent rights, and to equip, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein.

(d.) To use steam, water, electricity or any other power as a motive power or otherwise, and to supply power or light to any other company or individual on such terms as they deem fit.

(e.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, execute, dispose of and deal with promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments.

(f.) Generally to purchase, or take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any property or rights which may seem to the Company directly or indirectly conducive to its objects, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's objects, property or rights for the time being.

(g.) To enter into any agreement with any Government, supreme, local, municipal or otherwise that may seem advantageous to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any subsidy, rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, or to purchase any subsidy, rights, privileges or concessions from any concessionaire, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

(h.) To sell the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, or any of its property, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(i.) To sell, assign, transfer, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property or rights of the Company.

(j.) To borrow or raise money by issue of or upon bonds, debentures, debenture stock, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other obligations or securities of the Company, or to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's assets, income or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing such debentures or bonds, and such mortgage or mortgages may be in favour of such persons or person as the Company may see fit.

(k.) To carry out any of its objects either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by itself or through any person or company acting as agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise.

3. The amount of the capital stock shall be five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), divided into fifty thousand (50,000) shares of ten dollars each.

4. The number of trustees who shall manage the affairs of the Company for the first three months shall be six, and their names are:—Charles T. Dunbar, E. Lindsay Phillips, B. T. Rogers, Charles Loewen, C. St. Aubyn Pearse and M. W. Elphinstone.

5. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

6. The principal place of business shall be in the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the “British North America Act, 1867,” whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding rule, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of ratts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. The expenses and costs attending on Private Bills giving any exclusive privilege, or for any object of profit, or private, corporate, or individual advantage; or for amending, extending, or enlarging any former Acts, in such manner as to confer additional powers, ought not to fall on the public; accordingly, the parties seeking to obtain a Private Bill shall pay the Clerk of the House the sum of one hundred dollars before the first reading thereof; and an additional sum of one hundred dollars immediately after the second reading thereof. And no such Bill shall be read a first time, or committed after second reading, until the fees payable on the first or second reading respectively are paid to the Clerk, and all such Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in Imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches by 7 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches, and 100 copies thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be re-printed by the promoters thereof.

Authority to act as Parliamentary Agent may be obtained on application to the Clerk of the House, and upon payment of the sum of five dollars.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

EXTRACTS FROM RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF COMMONS, RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

ALL applications for Private Bills require a notice over the signature and address of the applicants or their solicitors, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, published by advertisement as follows, viz.:—In the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, District, Union of Counties or Territory, affected by the proposed measure, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest County, District or Territory in which a newspaper is published. In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba the notices must be published in the like manner in the English and French languages. All notices shall be continued for a period of at least two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition. Marked copies of the newspapers, endorsed "Application for Private Bill," containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

In the case of an application for the erection of a toll bridge the notice shall also state the proposed rates of toll, the nature of the structure, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers, etc.

A copy of the Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House in which the Bill is to originate at least eight days before the meeting of Parliament, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same; and a further sum of two hundred dollars and the cost of printing the Act with the Statutes will be levied immediately after the second reading of the Bill.

Petitions for Private Bills must be presented in the Senate within the first ten days, and in the House of Commons within the first three weeks of the session.

Private Bills are to be presented to the Senate within the first two weeks, and to the House of Commons within the first four weeks of the session.

EXTRACTS FROM SPECIAL RULES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Private Bills shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills.

Private Bills in amendment of Acts, or for Acts incorporating railway companies, shall be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill adopted by the House, copies of which may be obtained from the Clerk.

Provisions varying the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets and, when revised by the proper officer, shall be so printed.

Sections of existing Acts proposed to be amended shall be reprinted in full, with the amendments inserted in their proper places and between brackets.

Private Bills which are not drawn in accordance with these rules shall be returned to the promoters to be re-cast before being revised and printed.

Exceptional provisions shall be clearly specified in the notice of application.

A certified map or plan showing the location of any proposed line of railway, also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting, the district which the proposed work is intended to serve, and an exhibit showing the amount of capital proposed to be raised for the undertaking, and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same shall be filed with the Railway Committee at least one week before the consideration of the Bill.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Resolved, that the Clerk of the House do have a copy of the new Rule 49 sent to those persons giving notice in the Canada Gazette of their intention to apply to Parliament for the passing of a Private Bill, together with a notification that the said rule will be strictly adhered to for the future:—

49. Petitions for Private Bills shall only be received by the House within the first three weeks of the session, and Private Bills may only be presented to the House within the first four weeks of the session, and it shall be the duty of any Committee to which any Private Bill may be referred to consider and report the same to the House with all convenient speed.

2. That it be an instruction to all Committees on Private Bills, in the event of promoters not being ready to proceed with their measures when the same have been twice called on two separate occasions for consideration by the Committee, that such measure shall be reported back to the House forthwith, together with a statement of the facts and with the recommendation that such Bill be withdrawn.

RICHMOND BY-LAWS.

A BY-LAW

To amend the "Richmond Revenue By-law, 1893," in order to extend the time in which rebate will be allowed for payment of taxes.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient and advisable to amend the "Richmond Revenue By-law, 1893;"

Be it therefore enacted by the Reeve and Council of the Corporation of the Township of Richmond as follows:—

1. That section 8 of the "Richmond Revenue By-law, 1893," be amended by adding the word "thirty" before the word "first" in the said section.

2. That this by-law may be cited for all purposes as the "Richmond Revenue By-law, 1893, Amendment By-law."

Passed the Richmond Municipal Council this 18th day of November, A.D. 1893.

Reconsidered and adopted, and signed by the Reeve and Clerk of the Municipality, and the seal of the Corporation attached, this 21st day of November, A.D. 1893.

B. W. GARRATT,
Reeve.

COQUITLAM BY-LAWS.

A BY-LAW

To establish and open up certain Roads in the District of Coquitlam.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make and open up certain new roads within the District of Coquitlam:

Be it enacted, therefore, by the Reeve and Council of the Corporation of the District of Coquitlam as follows:—

That from and after the passage of this by-law, the Council may, pursuant to the "Municipal Act, 1892," enter upon, expropriate, break up and use for roads and highways the lands more particularly described hereinafter, the same being within the jurisdiction of the Council, viz.:—

Road No. 1.—Lying, situate and being on Lot 231, Group 1, New Westminster District, and more particularly described as follows:—Beginning at the eastern end of Road No. 6, as described in the Coquitlam Road By-law of 1892; thence running in a north-easterly direction along the north-westerly boundary of proposed dyke reservation to the intersection with the coast meridian. Said described line to be 16½ feet from dyke reserve, and to be the centre of a 33-foot road.

Road No. 2.—Lying, situate and being on Sections 5 and 6, Township 40, and Lots 466, 464 and 379, Township 39, New Westminster District, more particularly described as follows:—Beginning at a point on the westerly bank of the Pitt River and on the southern boundary of the north-east quarter of Section 5, Township 40; thence due west to the easterly bank of the Coquitlam River; thence south-westerly along said bank to the line between Lots 380 and 464; thence south to the south-east corner of Lot 380; thence west to the east bank of the Coquitlam River. Said road to be 33 feet wide, and said described line to be the southern boundary of said road from point of commencement to the south-east corner of Lot 479; thence to terminal point. Said described line to be the centre of road.

Road No. 3.—Lying, situate and being on Lot 112, Group 1, New Westminster District, more particularly described as follows:—Beginning at the north-west corner of Lot 112, Group 1, New Westminster District; thence south along the west boundary of said Lot 112 to the intersection with the pipe line; thence west along pipe line 18 chains 33 links; thence west 30° south 13 chains 43 links to Pitt River Road. Said described line to be the centre of a 66-foot road.

Road No. 4.—Lying, situate and being on Lots 366, 365, 364, 363, 362, 361, 374 and 378, Group 1, New Westminster District, more particularly described as follows:—Beginning where the Austin Road leaves the western boundary of Lot No. 365; thence north to the south-west corner of Lot 368; thence east to the south-east corner of Lot 371; thence north to the south-west corner of Lot 372; thence east to north-east corner of Lot 378. Said described line to be the centre of a 66-foot road.

Road No. 5.—Lying, situate and being in Section 8, Township 40, New Westminster District, and more particularly described as follows:—Beginning at a point on the north bank of North Pitt Meadows slough, where the east boundary of section 8 intersects it; thence north along said east boundary to the north-east corner of said Section 8 for a distance of 33 chains; thence north 7° east 11 chains to intersection of Road No. 2 in "Coquitlam Road By-law, 1892." Said described line to be the centre of a 66-foot road.

Road No. 6.—Lying, situate and being on Lots 463 and 464, Group 1, New Westminster District, and more particularly described as follows:—Beginning at a point where the produced eastern boundary of Lot No. 379, Group 1, New Westminster District, intersects the New Westminster and Pitt River Road; thence north along said bearing of the eastern boundary of said Lot 379 to the south-east corner of said Lot 379; thence in a north-easterly direction through Lots 463 and 464 to the north boundary of said Lot 464. Said described line to be the centre of a 33-foot road.

Road No. 7.—Lying, situate and being on Lots No. 464, 379 and 380, Group 1, New Westminster District, and more particularly described as follows:—Beginning at the point where Road No. 6 of this by-law intersects the southern boundary of said Lot 464, Group 1, New Westminster District; thence north-westerly to the point where the southern boundary of Lot 380, Group 1, New Westminster District, meets the eastern bank of the Coquitlam River; thence west along said southern boundary of Lot 380 to a point 16½ feet from the northerly boundary of the C. P. Railroad; thence westerly parallel with said northerly boundary of Canadian Pacific Railroad to the western boundary of said Lot 380. Said described line to be the centre of a 33-foot road.

This by-law shall take effect on the first day of January, 1894.

This by-law may be cited as the "Coquitlam Road By-law, 1893."

Reconsidered and finally passed and the seal of the Corporation attached this 11th day of November, 1893.

A BY-LAW

To define what shall be deemed a lawful fence within the Boundaries of the District.

THE Reeve and Council of the District of Coquitlam, in Council assembled, enacts as follows:—

1. A wire fence to constitute a legal fence must have a top rail and three wires. The top rail must not be less than three inches in diameter at the small end, and either spiked with six-inch spikes or one-inch thick trunnels, or the top rail may be composed of 1x6 inch boards securely nailed to side of posts within two inches of top of posts. The posts must not be less than four inches in diameter at the small end, and be sunk not less than two and one-half feet into the ground. The fence to be not less than four feet nine inches from the ground to the top of the top rail. The posts to be not over ten feet apart, the first wire to be one foot from the ground, the second two feet from the ground, and the third wire half way between the second wire and the top rail.

2. For a board fence the posts shall be four feet nine inches long from the surface of the ground, and sunk two and one-half feet in the ground, and to be not more than ten feet apart; the boards to be securely nailed to the face of the posts, with not less than eight-penny nails; the boards to be what is termed in mills as inch lumber, not less than six inches wide, and distribution of boards to conform with the Provincial Statutes regarding fences. The posts to be not less than four inches diameter.

3. For a picket fence the posts shall be four feet high above the ground, sunk two and one-half feet into the ground, and not more than ten feet apart. The pickets must not be less than three-quarters of an inch thick, and four feet nine inches long from the ground, and to be either sunk six inches into the ground or securely nailed to two rails, one rail on top of post, and the other one foot from ground.

4. A picket fence without posts shall consist of pickets of not less than three inches in diameter at the small end, and sunk into the ground not less than two feet, and not more than three inches apart, and to stand four feet nine inches from the surface of the ground, and 1x3 or 1x6 inch boards nailed within six inches of the top of pickets with not less than eight-penny nails.

5. All snake or crooked fences to be deemed a lawful fence shall be six rails high, and the rails are not to be over six inches apart, staked and ridered, either centre staked or corner staked, and the stakes are not to be less than two inches in diameter at the top end, and driven or sunk in the ground not less than nine inches, the rider must not be less than three inches in diameter at the top end, and not more than twenty inches from the top rail; the worm to be laid for twelve-foot rails must not be over sixteen feet from first corner to second corner.

6. A double post fence straight must be made with posts not less than four feet nine high, and sunk in the ground two feet six inches and securely fastened at top of posts either with slats nailed across or tied with wire, and the rails are not to be more than six inches apart, and four feet nine inches high from ground to top of rail.

7. Chock and log fences shall be of the same dimensions as snake fences, only without stakes and rider; but the top log must be securely spiked or trunnelleed with not less than inch thick trunnels.

This by-law shall take effect on the 1st day of January, 1894.

This by-law may be cited as the "Coquitlam Fence By-law, 1893."

Reconsidered and finally passed and the seal of the Corporation attached this 11th day of November, 1893.

SOUTH VANCOUVER BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW

To regulate the Traffic upon the Highways of the District of the Municipality of South Vancouver, and for the protection of the said Highways, Roads and Bridges.

BE IT ENACTED by the Reeve and Council of the Corporation of the Municipality of South Vancouver as follows:—

1. No person shall encumber, injure or foul any road, bridge or other corporate property with an animal, vehicle, or other obstruction to traffic, or shall deposit, or suffer or permit to be deposited, thrown into, or leave in or upon any road, street or alley, any dead animal or any refuse of animal or vegetable matter whatever.

2. No person or persons shall draw upon the bridges or highways of the Municipality, any logs, trees, machinery, or other articles or implements that are not rolled on wheels or drawn on properly constructed sleighs with the front end of log, tree or load at least eight inches from the ground.

3. No waggon, engine, machine, or other article, or load of articles, of a greater weight than four tons, shall be drawn upon any of the bridges or highways of the Municipality without the consent in writing of the Reeve or Chairman of the Board of Works of the said Municipality, and such assent shall not be given until the person or persons desiring the same have given suitable security, to their satisfaction, that the person or persons will reinstate and make good, to the satisfaction of the Council, any damage that may be caused to the road, or culvert, or bridge by such waggon or other machine as above-mentioned.

4. No timber, logs, skids, cordwood, or branches of wood, snow, ice, or other articles or material shall be laid on any part of the road, or ditches, or bridges, or accesses thereto, so as in any way either to obstruct the flow of water in the ditches, or deface either the said roads, ditches or bridges.

5. No person shall drive any waggon or other vehicle across any of the ditches to any house, field, or place without a properly constructed culvert having been first constructed thereon (at his own expense if necessary) and any person desiring to form or construct a culvert across any ditch shall be bound to apply for and obtain the consent of the Reeve or the Councillor of the Ward before constructing the same.

6. The rules of the highways and roads in this Municipality shall be and are that vehicles meeting each other shall pass to the left-hand side of the highway or road.

7. No person shall be permitted to ride or drive fast or furiously so as to endanger the life or property of himself or others, or themselves, on said highways, roads or bridges.

8. Every owner, lessee, tenant, or occupant or agent for the same, shall cut and destroy all Canadian, Scotch or bull thistles, burdock, wild mustard, and every other noxious weed growing upon one-half of the public road or highway fronting upon his or their said lands before they shall have begun to flower.

9. That in case of refusal or neglect after six days' notice by the Clerk of the Municipality, said notice to be either personal or posted up in some conspicuous place on the immediate road, it may be lawful for any person to cut down and destroy any such thistles or noxious weeds before-mentioned at the expense of the owner or any person having the care and control of the said lands.

10. In the event of any person or persons committing a breach of any of the foregoing sections of this by-law, he or they shall be liable not only to pay and make good all the damage to said highways, roads, bridges and approaches thereto, and other subjects hereinbefore mentioned, but also to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, together with the cost of any judicial proceedings, which said damages, fine and costs may be recovered before a Judge of the County Court in the County of Westminster or in the County of Vancouver, or in a summary manner before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the District of New Westminster, and the said damages, if any, and the fine so imposed, and the said costs thereon, may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender or offenders, and in case of want of sufficient distress the said offender or offenders may be imprisoned in the common gaol of the said District, on the order of the said Judge of the County Court, or of the said Justice of the Peace, for a term not exceeding one calendar month.

11. This by-law shall come into force and effect on 21st day of November, A.D. 1893.

12. This by-law may be cited for all purposes as the "South Vancouver Traffic Regulation By-law, 1893." Passed the Municipal Council the 18th day of November, A.D. 1893.

Reconsidered and adopted, and the seal of the Corporation attached thereto, on the 20th day of November, A.D. 1893.

[L.S.] J. W. LAWSON,

GEORGE MARTIN, C. M. C.

Reeve.

NOTICE.

The above is a true copy of a by-law passed by the Municipal Council of South Vancouver on the 20th day of November, A.D. 1893, and all persons are hereby required to take notice that anyone desirous of applying to have such by-law, or any part thereof, quashed, must make his application for that purpose to the Supreme Court within one month next after the publication of this by-law in the British Columbia Gazette, or he will be too late to be heard in that behalf.
